

Publication date: 29 August 2025Price: R320,00Pages: 224Format: 234mm x 152mmBinding: Paperback / softbackCategory: English novelISBN-13: 9780795711251Barcode: 9780795711251Edition: 1Impression: 0

* Price is subject to change

Lebo Mazibuko

Fabrics of Love

After the forced removals in the 1950's, Lemohang and Fumane Ntoi found themselves in Meadowlands, Soweto. They rebuilt their lives, creating a respectable home for their children, Buang and Seun Ntoi, through education and religion. After Fumane's death, Lemohang was plunged into a depressive state, having not only lost his wife, but his son who took off, leaving Lemohang with a daughter he resented. This family saga is told through the lens of the third generation of women who surround Lemohang, the head of the family, as he struggles to hold onto life as he knew it. It is the Ntoi women's assertiveness, beauty and youth that jeopardises his position and ideals for this family.

We follow Prettygirl, Rosemary and Moipone as they navigate issues around culture, legacy, love and marriage. There are also secrets that threaten to rip apart the fabric that is holding this seemingly picture-perfect family together.

About the author

Lebo Mazibuko was born in Johannesburg and grew up in the township of Pimville Soweto. She discovered her passion for storytelling at a young age attending school at the National School of the Arts where she matriculated. She is a trained theatre performer, having obtained her B-Tech in the Dramatic Arts at the Tshwane University of Technology.

Media Enquiries

Contact: Lynné Schoeman

Tel: 021 406 3033

Email: lynne.schoeman@nb.co.za

Kwela is an imprint of NB Publishers

Tel: +27 (0) 21 406 3033

Website: www.nb.co.za